

BARRE VOTES "NO" ON GRANTING OF LICENSES

William Barclay Re-elected Mayor of City.

RESULTS IN WARDS 4 AND 6

H. F. Cutler Elected Alderman Without Opposition in Ward 2--H. G. Woodruff From ward 2 and Wm. Scott From ward 4 Elected School Commissioners.

The Vote On License:

Yes, 768
No, 780

The voters were slow in getting started in the annual municipal election today and it was eleven o'clock before a respectable vote had been cast in any ward with the exception of four and six where there were contests on for aldermen. The polls opened at nine o'clock this morning throughout the city. In the fifth ward not a vote had been cast up to ten o'clock and the indications were for a very tight count there. In ward one George I. Beckley started the voters and there came a few. Finally the ward officers got tired waiting and some of them went to playing marbles.

There being no contests in ward two the voters were backward. Mayor Barclay was at the voting place in this ward with the election officers and was the third man to cast a ballot, the first one being the Rev. W. A. Kinzie. Retiring Alderman Mackenzie, one of Mayor Barclay's opponents for the mayoralty election, was also out early at the voting booth in the third ward, casting his vote fifteen minutes after nine. The third candidate for mayor, William H. Jones on the Socialist ticket, was more leisurely in voting in the same ward.

In contrast to the inactivity in these four wards, however, was the rush in four and six. Here there were contests for aldermen, and the supporters were hustling. In the officers and former Street Commissioner Alex. Bruce started the stream, and from that time on the booths were rarely vacant. At the opening of the voting supporters of Alderman Adie and Arthur Campbell, his opponent, were claiming they had votes enough to win. Before the polls had been open two hours in ward four almost half the voters had placed their ballots in the boxes. At 1 o'clock two-thirds of the ward six men had voted.

As the day progressed it became evident that the real interest was over the yes and no vote on the licensing of the sale of liquor. The adherents of both sides were working quickly in an endeavor to get out their full strength.

TUITION FEES NOT RECEIVED

Sensation Sprung by Rutland School Board Chairman

SUPERINTENDENT IS OUT

He Resigned Last Night and Board Voted to Accept After a Lively Session—Fire Chief Dunton Thrown Out Also.

Rutland, March 6.—Superintendent Willard A. Frasier of the Rutland public schools, who has held that position for the past eight years, is no longer in the employ of the city. His resignation was unanimously accepted last night by the board of education, to take effect immediately. His salary was $1,500 a year. There has been rumors for several months that his resignation would be asked for.

There were numerous surprises before the session closed, and all in all it proved to be the liveliest meeting of the board in many a day.

Chairman James F. Lamb of the tuition committee declared that since the fall term of 1899 a total of $4,400, which the city should have received in tuition fees from pupils attending the high school from outside towns, was unaccounted for.

Commissioner Lamb stated that in the year 1900 the city treasurer has no record of a dollar paid in for tuition from pupils attending from other towns and that during the same year the school manual shows that $17 was collected. He said:

"If any member of this board wants to go into the matter, we can show even more was paid than has been here accounted for. In the year 1901 the records show that only $55 was paid in. We can show that considerably more was collected. I can show furthermore that one of the directors of the town profited by what was done, and the city was the loser."

At this point a motion was made to accept the report of Mr. Lamb's committee and to instruct the members to continue the investigation and collection of funds.

Commissioner Ward asked if some provision should not be made for the appointment of a new superintendent of schools to fill the vacancy. He asked if Commissioner Ross would take the position temporarily. Mr. Ross did not think that he could, and the matter was finally referred to the committee on teachers with power to act and instructions to secure a suitable man for the position of superintendent of schools at once.

A. E. CAMPBELL, Alderman-elect from Ward 6.

THOUGHTLESS, SHOT DEER

Wilbur Howland of Cabot Said "I Did Not Think"

WHEN HE SAW EIGHT DEER

Commissioner Thomas Says That the Lad Must Be Prosecuted—Herd Had Been Staying Near the Morris Farm.

Cabot, March 6.—A peculiar case in the illegal killing of deer occurred in this town yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock. Clement Howland, who was looking over the Harry Whitaker farm, was accompanied by his nephew, Wilbur Howland, son of Charles Howland, a lad of 12 years, who carried a 38-40 Marlin rifle. The boy was in advance of the men, and came suddenly upon a herd of eight deer, and hastily drew his rifle, firing into the herd three times. He hit a beautiful three or four-year-old doe, breaking one fore leg and entering the body in such a manner as to bleed the animal thoroughly, causing her death in a few minutes. Mr. Howland ran to the home of Caylon Morris and telephoned the county warden at Marshfield, who went to the Morris farm at once.

The men had gotten the deer to the barn, per order of the warden, before his arrival, and Mr. Carpenter dressed it, with the hide and head on. The dressed weight of the animal will probably reach from 150 to 175 pounds. Warden Pike communicated with markets in Montpelier and Barre, selling the carcass to F. D. Ladd of Barre, where it will be on sale tomorrow. He also communicated with State Commissioner Thomas as to the prosecution of the case. The commissioner's reply was: "Prosecute the case; there is no other way."

When asked by the warden why he shot the deer, the boy carefully replied: "I didn't think." The father of the boy feels very badly over the affair, and will do all in his power to right the deed. These deer have herded near the Morris farm through the winter, having been seen many times by different persons. There is one very large buck and the rest are does. The animals are of stock and the injured deer would have given birth to a fawn in the early summer.

When the question was first put before the members by acting President Edward Manning, and a vote called for, they refused to vote on the matter. Mayor J. F. Manning thereupon insisted that the board either accept or reject Chief Dunton's resignation and when a vote was called for every member responded when his name was called, Alderman Kelton being the only member who voted no. The board voted to pay Chief Dunton $465, a sum equal to his salary for six months, as a token of esteem for the service he has rendered in the fire department for 32 years.

Correspondent Doesn't Like Way Young People Are Treated.

To the Barre Daily Times: It seems queer that people living in the town of Barre and they send their children into the city to do errands they can't go on any of the back streets without being insulted by the young men of the city. I really think the city is improving. I cannot imagine what it will be in a few years from now if it keeps on. I think the best way is for people on the street to mind their own business when young children are sent away from home which was being unloaded from a car. He was pinned against the United States Clothes Pin company's platform. When exulted by his fellow workmen he was hustled to the hospital. ## HATCH PLOT IN BARRE?

Yellow Story Comes Out of Boston

DENIED BY LOCAL MEN

Story Is That Plot Was Laid Here to Blow Up Hoosac Tunnel Docks in Boston to Give Some Italians Work.

The following despatch was received in Barre last night from Boston: "Report here that prominent Boston Italian visiting in Barre attended meeting of Italians and learned they were to attempt to blow up Hoosac tunnel docks here. He has written a letter to Cole of police board telling police of plot. Police have given out story but laughed at it."

When showed the despatch, local Italians laughed at it, declaring that it was a humbug and that they knew nothing of the affair. They denied all knowledge of any plot, said that they knew of no Boston man having been in town recently, and that the idea of such a plot being framed in Barre was ridiculous, for the Italians in Barre almost to a man work in the granite cutting industry and would not be interested in the blowing up of the Hoosac tunnel docks.

The reason for such an attempt was divulged in another despatch from Boston, which declared that the plot was to blow up other properties in Boston besides the docks, to enable the Italians to get employment. The informant, presumably an Italian, had stated that they had a great quantity of dynamite stored for the purpose. That Barre Italians should be interested in such a scheme to get work is out of the question, for there are few who are out of work at the present time.

Chief Brown of the Barre police department declares that he does not believe there is any foundation for the story, adding that no information of such a plot has come to his office.

FIRST MAPLE SUGAR PARTY.

Fine New Syrup Served at the Baptist Church Last Evening.

About 100 people went to the Baptist church last evening in order to try some of the maple syrup which was claimed to be this year's. All except two or three, who saw the syrup made, were more or less skeptical as to its being this year's, so early is it in the season. Everyone was perfectly well satisfied, however, that it was the "real thing" before they went home. In fact, Mr. Kinzie expelled all doubts before they sat down by telling them that he was in Ira Chase's sugar house, in West Berlin, last week when the syrup was made.

NAME NOT ON LIST.

But Walter Morgan Given Permission to Vote Today.

The board of civil authority held a brief session this morning, prior to the opening of the polls, and chose Frank Odgers as a ward officer in ward four in place of W. D. Calder and W. C. Goodwin in ward six in place of J. B. Magnagli. The case of Walter Morgan from the fourth ward was disposed of. Morgan's name was not on the check list, and he wanted the name on the list, so he wanted the board to appear before the board and give cause why his name should not be stricken from the list. He declared that he had not received the notice, and Constable Nichols was called on to explain. It developed that no personal notice had been served on Morgan, and so the board authorized City Clerk Mackay to present him with a note to the fourth ward officers that he should be allowed to vote in spite of the fact that his name was not on the list.

BABY SHOT HIMSELF.

Peculiar Affair in Burlington Infirmary Class.

Burlington, March 6.—Theodore, the four years old son of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Sharpley of North Avenue, is slowly recovering from the effects of a bullet wound sustained last Friday morning. While playing with the gun and trying to remove the cartridges the trigger was pulled, it is believed by being caught in his clothes and the gun exploded. The bullet passed through the boy's throat, hitting them, and into the fleshy part of his leg, down to the knee, where it is still lodged. A surgeon who was summoned probed for the bullet but was unable to locate it. Unless ulceration sets in, no incision will be made to extract it. Mr. Sharpley heard the report, rushed to his son's assistance and extinguished the burning clothing.
